The petitioner is aggrieved by the orders (Annexures P-9 and P-10), passed by the Commissioner as well as the Financial Commissioner, by which the case has been ordered to be remanded to the Assistant Collector to decide the partition proceedings afresh.

A perusal of the impugned orders shows that the Assistant Collector shall afford adequate opportunity to the parties before finalizing the partition proceedings de novo.

We find no infirmity in the impugned orders and accordingly, the present writ petition is dismissed.
